

Values That Guide You

Your vision is how you envision your farm 10 to 15 years from now. Your vision should reflect your values. In considering your vision for your farm, use these questions to help you create a vision statement.

Why do you want to farm?

What do you hope to gain for you and/or your family by starting to farm?

What are your core values in the following areas?

Family/Personal	Social	Environmental	Financial